

Melius & Hockenberry Environmental Services, Inc.

Project Summary

Melius & Hockenberry Environmental Services, Inc. was contracted to complete a groundwater development project for Crossman, Castle, and Morina Construction. The project consisted of a proposed residential development of an 18-acre parcel situated in Frankstown Township, Blair County, Pennsylvania.

PROJECT PROFILE: Crossman, Castle, & Morina Groundwater Development Project

Services Provided

- ◆ Background investigation
- ◆ Preparation of Pre-Drilling Plan
- ◆ Preparation of Bid Documents and Well Construction Specification Packages
- ◆ Project Coordination and Management of Subcontractors
- ◆ Drill Inspection and Pump Testing
- ◆ Coordination of the Monitoring of water levels in an array of neighboring residential wells
- ◆ Water-quality testing of pumped well

Boring advanced to a total depth of 250-ft.

Subcontractors

Ritchey Well Drilling, Inc.
Fairway Laboratories, Inc.

E&S ponds during drilling of well.

This hydrogeological project consisted of well siting, drilling, construction, testing, water quality analysis, monitoring of an array of neighboring residential wells, and reporting. It was completed in accordance with guidelines and regulations of the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection (PaDEP).

The project was completed in 2007.